

Making A Contribution To Missouri Civil War Museum

By making a contribution now to The Museum Fund, you will be assisting us in not only preserving another wonderful significant building at the Historic Jefferson Barracks, but you will also be helping us establish one of the finest educational and interpretive facilities ever created in the State of Missouri that will be exclusively dedicated and devoted to the preservation and study of the American Civil War and its relevance our the State.

A facility dedicated to “Missouri’s Own” and the struggle and sacrifices its people made during the long devastating period between 1861 and 1865. An institution ever so committed in teaching future generations the true and complete history and story of the American Civil War as it occurred in the Great State of Missouri.
